STEVE POWERS (ESPO)

Steve Powers was born and raised in Philadelphia. In 1994 he moved to New York City, published On the Go Magazine, and wrote enough graffiti to get a six-count felony indictment courtesy of the People of New York. After retaining the services of the excellent Ron Kuby, he accepted a plea deal and served 5 days community service. Powers started his studio practice in 1998. Since then, he has shown at Deitch Projects, the 49th Venice Biennale, the Luggage Store, and the Liverpool Biannual. In 2004 he worked with Creative Time on the Dreamland Artist Club in Coney Island. Go see him at the Dreamland Artist Clubhouse at 1206 Surf through Labor Day.
