Art and Music Beach Party with the
SCISSOR SISTERS
DECEMBER 1, 2004 10 PM

Deitch Projects and Art Basel Miami are pleased to present a performance by one of the most exciting new bands in the world, the Scissor Sisters, at our annual opening night beach party. Emerging out of the downtown New York art and club worlds the Scissor Sisters have developed a sound, a look and an attitude that can be described as Pop after Pop. Lead singer Jake Shears is one of the most charismatic performers to emerge in the last several years with an amazing falsetto and astonishing dance moves perfected during his years as the top go-go dancer on the bar at Squeezebox. The Scissor Sisters have developed a new sound that fuses 80s pop music with the latest electronic dance rhythms. The Scissor Sisters album was number one on the charts in the UK. They are rapidly developing a wildly enthusiastic following in the United States.

DEARRAINDROP
THE RIDDLE OF THE SPHINX

DECEMBER 2 – 6, 2004

OPENING THURSDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 2, 8:30PM-12AM

AS PART OF THE THIRD ANNUAL ART LOVES DESIGN PARTY

Design District, 139 NE 39th Street, Miami

Deitch Projects is pleased to present Dearraindrop, The Riddle of the Sphinx, in conjunction with Craig Robins and The Dacra Companies in the Design District. Filling the space with sculpture, video projections, paintings and drawings, the group will transform the space into a mythical, psychedelic fun house. Massive sculptures such as a tee-pee village and a giant sphinx will fill the platforms and tunnels of their maze, a hyperreal surfeit of imagery glowing in neon and blacklight. Dearraindrop are prophets of the sinister swirl of media imagery that irrationally commingle and mutate in our netherconsciousness. Collaborating with the late George Harrison and channeling the future Kenny Scharf, the group consists of Joe Grillo, Laura and Billy Grant, and Alika.
