CHICKS ON SPEED IT'S A PROJECT

April 10 - 17, Open Daily 2 - 8PM
Live Performances April 16 & 17 at 8PM
18 Wooster Street

Chicks on Speed: It's a Project will transform Deitch Project's 18 Wooster Street gallery into a workshop, music studio, sweatshop, boutique and concert hall, blurring the lines between fashion, music, and an art happening in the tradition of fluxus and 60's sit-ins. The exhibition opening April 10th will culminate in two live performances on April 16th and 17th at 8 PM.

Chicks on Speed (COS) are Melissa Logan (New York), Kiki Moore (Munich), and Alex Murray-Leslie (Bowral, Australia). They're a band, a clothing label, a website, a record label, a design team, and a 21st-century phenomenon. The three members of COS met at art school in Munich and then moved to Berlin, where they reinvented themselves as Chicks on Speed, an all-girl collective. From providing raunchy, cover-version soundtracks to parties and gigs, to customizing visitor's clothing at exhibitions (Fondation Cartier), to posing with Karl Lagerfeld for the cover of their latest album, the Chicks have invaded the worlds of fashion and music with their endearing do-it-yourself aesthetic and good-time vibe.

The exhibition and performances coincide with the publication of their first book It's a Project by Booth-Clibborn and Abrams. It's a Project is as much a sculpture as it is a book and comes with its own COS designed book bag.

Deitch Projects introduced COS to the American art world last December where they performed a much-talked about concert on Miami Beach in gale force winds. Their performances are total works of art encompassing music, video, dance, fashion and sculpture.
