Deitch Projects is pleased to present a collection of the most cutting-edge, underground video art being produced today. Organized by Devin Flynn, Kendra Gaeta, and Takeshi Murata, this exhibition includes eye-popping visual disruptions that delve deep into a psychedelic symbiosis of the auditory and the visual.

This weeklong show begins with one amazing nights of live performance that will agitate your eyeballs, rods, cones, eardrums, and all moveable parts into a united overthrow of reason. Various groupings of the artists included, their associated bands, and some special guests will perform music REALLY LOUDLY- and logically so, as many of them have crossed paths repeatedly in the musically-charged art scene of Providence, Rhode Island.

Debuted April 1st at the Anthology Film Archives, the Tedious Limbs video program has been expanded and revised to include a new array of videos and performances. These artists will take over Deitch Projects' showroom at 26 Wooster Street from May 7rd to 14th. Open to the public: 12 - 6pm, Tuesday through Saturday.
